

The British Benevolent Fund

PRESS RELEASE: for immediate distribution

13 July 2018

EVENT: Stewart Cusden, Chairman of The British Benevolent Fund (BBF) will present Jaqueline Phillips OBE of MABS Cancer Support with a cheque for €9,000 at a special ceremony at the Charity's recently opened palliative care home in Camposol, Mazarrón, Murcia on 25th July at 12.00 noon.

PRESS are invited to visit the Centre and discuss the work it carries out in offering Hospice and Respite Care, treatment information and counselling and practical support to those affected by cancer. English speaking staff with Spanish speakers available when required.

This palliative care home works with families of all nationalities affected by cancer, with a significant proportion being British, which is why the British Benevolent Fund has decided to make this generous donation. The British Benevolent Fund is the oldest English speaking charity in Spain dedicated to helping British citizens in need.

A MABS spokesperson commented: "This Home is a long held wish of ours to be able to offer a complete range of services to help people when they are at their most vulnerable. Cancer is a dreadful disease and we in MABS strive to help with everything from transport to translators; nursing care to counselling so this place now means we can provide complete care when needed"

DETAILS:

- The British Benevolent Fund are donating money to MABS
- A cheque for 9,000 euros will be presented by Stewart Cusden, Chairman of the BBF
- Location: MABS Respite Home, Avda de los Cavochos 278, Camposol 30875. To arrange visits contact Centre Manager Kate Goddard 618 582 418 or Beverley Thompson 634 362 823
- 25th of July at 12.00 noon
- We welcome press coverage, especially among English-language publications whose readers may not be aware of the excellent work carried out by the British Benevolent Fund or MABS in Spain.

Thank you for spreading the word!

We look forward to meeting you.

More information/ contact: press@britishbenevolentfund.com
www.britishbenevolentfund.org

The British Benevolent Fund of Madrid

Calle Salvia 30, 28109 Alcobendas, Madrid | CIF: G87397675
info@britishbenevolentfund.org | www.britishbenevolentfund.org
Registro Nacional de Asociaciones N°: 608321